

Japanese Matsuri for Glasgow
c/o Europe-Japan Social Science Research Centre
Adam Smith Building
Glasgow G12 8RT
E-mail: maturiglasgow@hotmail.com
Home page: <http://www.japanese-matsuri-glasgow.org.uk/>

"Taiko Fun" in February 2006

Japanese Matsuri for Glasgow will hold a series of Taiko Fun on four consecutive Saturday afternoons in February.

- Taiko Fun is for beginners.
- Children and adults will practice Taiko together.
- The participants will learn a simplified version of Hounen Mushioi Daiko, an ancient Taiko tune from Central Japan, prepared by Music teacher John Guerrier. JMG are most grateful to Osuwa Taiko Hozonkai for allowing us to use part of the tune they have preserved.
- With John's guidance, the participants will be encouraged to compose a new Taiko tune collectively.
- The participants will be encouraged to perform Taiko at the fifth Hina Matsuri, which will be held on Saturday 4th March 2006 at Wellington Church, University Avenue, from 2 to 5 pm.

Venue: Wellington Church, University Avenue (please enter from a side door in Southpark Avenue.

Dates: Saturday 4 th February	from 2 to 4 pm
Saturday 11 th February	from 2 to 4 pm
Saturday 18 th February	from 2 to 4 pm
Saturday 25 th February	from 2 to 4 pm (rehearsal for the performance at Hina Matsuri)

Fees: For an adult aged 16 +: £5 per session (2 hours)
For a child aged 7 to 15: £2 per session (2 hours)

If you are interested, please fill in the application form below and send it to: Japanese Matsuri for Glasgow, c/o Europe-Japan Social Science Research Centre, Adam Smith Building, University of Glasgow, Glasgow G12 8RT. Or you may email it to maturiglasgow@hotmail.com

=====

I would like to participate in the Taiko Fun on the following date(s).

Date(s):

Age:

Name:

(For child, parent/guardian's name):

Address:

Telephone number:

Signature: